"The new instalment on Indigo æra features three originals by Indigo's founders Jasper Wolff and Maarten Mittendorff. Since the label's start they have been on a mission for soul containing techno. This release, a little bit more tough styled compared to their previous releases, still perfectly maintains the detroit-esque melodic elements. Cosmic Language EP is about the visualization of soundwaves into geometric forms.... Opener 'Ante 303' is a loose limbed bit of techno with straight kicks, spacious percussion and an always essential baseline that sprays about freely. Heady but physical, it's a seductively supple bit of techno. 'Trica' has more classically driven chords and has real sense of crescendo buried in the bass. Last but not least, 'Stellar Cult' makes effective use of the 909 toms, with alien and sci fi sonic details evolving into a space journey with an soulfull ending of strings and stars. The EP, will come as a regular 12" but only the limited edition 12" + 10" includes the track 'Stellar Cult'."

Comments about Cosmic Language EP - Jasper Wolff

Sorryyy

Why would they choose to release Stellar Cult on a seperate 10"? It's arguably the best track on the whole EP and 150 ain't exactly alot. Hope they rp.Other than that, EP sounds ace. 4.5/5.
